MR. CHARLES J. BRIDEY

Assistant Headmaster

Dedication

We, the class of 1958, are proud to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Charles Bridey, our late, beloved Senior Master. We were keenly saddened by the untimely loss of this man who was to all a model of what a Master should be. His tireless efforts in behalf of the students, his unflagging spirit, and his high degree of integrity inspired all of us. Therefore, we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Bridey and only hope that a few of us can achieve his high standards of honesty, fidelity, and kindness.

WILLIAM CHAFE

Prologue

As we, the Class of 1958, walked through the portals of C.H.L.S. in September, 1954, we were a little homesick for our former school, and the ensuing four years seemed to stretch endlessly ahead of us.

However, as we became acquainted with the rules and geography of the school, and as our chosen courses were introduced to us, and our horizons began to broaden, confidence returned. Our new school soon became familiar and dear to us.

Now, those four years are behind us and we have achieved our goal, but this was made possible only through the able guidance of our Headmaster, Masters, Deans and Teachers.

The following pages of this yearbook are a symbol of our achievements during our high school career.

Tribute

To Mr. Sheehan, we pay tribute for his unexcelled leadership during our four years of high school. He kept us always on our toes and his sparkling humor made every day bright. We hope that this picture will be a pleasant reminder of him in the days ahead.

MISS OLIVE I. LYNCH

Tribute

To Miss Olive Lynch, our Senior Dean, who has done more for us than anyone else* this past year, we proudly pay tribute. Words cannot express the deep appreciation we feel for her unceasing efforts in our behalf. After Mr. Bridey's death, she proceeded to assume his duties as well as her own. She has guided us with a calm, reassuring hand when others might have floundered under her heavy responsibility. Truly, without her we should have been lost. Thus, we pay tribute to Miss Lynch and offer her our deep and heartfelt thanks for a job superbly done.

SUNRISE

With fiery beams of glittering gold,
With crown of light, the rising sun
Ascends the morning sky. Behold,
A day of promise just begun.
For us the dawn of life is here;
With hearts aflame, with spirits gay,
We gaze ahead — faith firm, hope clear,
We set our feet upon the way.
Let us combat the fray of life
With sword of knowledge, shield of truth,
With helm of honor bright. The strife
We'll win; the world seems gold to youth.
But, God, direct our steps, we pray.
O'er us extend Thy guiding hand;
Though now we scatter far, yet may
Our paths converge upon Thy land.

Class Will

We, the class of '58, being of unbalanced mind, beyond a shadow of a doubt, do hereby designate this to be the last will and testament of the senior class and we bequest the following items to our beloved Cambridge High and Latin School to be held in fond memory of us.

- I To Mr. Sheehan, our Headmaster, we leave our approval of an eleven-month school year, along with plans for the year itself to be extended to 14 months.
- II To the cafeteria we leave a first edition copy of the Good Housekeeping Cook Book for Beginners.
- III To the brave teachers who risk life and limb attempting to keep order in the corridors between classes, we leave solid gold badges for bravery beyond the call of duty.
- IV To the incoming Freshman class we leave our school spirit, which combined with theirs will bring about the abandonment of sports.
- V To the English Department we leave a year's subscription to the top three books of the Best Seller List, along with a detailed criticism of each.
- VI To Mr. Higgins we leave the knowledge that the seniors in his class now know when the War of 1812 was fought.
- VII To Mr. Amoruso we leave a subscription to all the Elvis Presley albums released in the year of 1958
- VIII To our well-equipped medical department we leave a giant economy size bottle of bufferin, not aspirin, to treat the ailing, wailing students.

- IX To our Football Team we leave this thought, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."
- X To the Science Department we leave detailed plans for the building of a missile which will carry unwilling students to the moon.
- XI To the Track Team we leave a year's supply of gold medals and blue ribbons to be hocked whenever necessary.
- XII To the Basketball Team we leave a new set of custom-made uniforms which fit the players.
- XIII To the Freshman and Sophomore classes we leave stilts for those who never grew up.
- XIV To all the students and teachers we leave both plans and capital for the installation of a number of elevators throughout the building.
- XV To the Junior girls we leave the Senior boys who didn't graduate and we wish them luck.
- XVI To all classes we leave a giant, economy-size supply of blocks for those who run low.
- XVII To all our Deans, Masters and Teachers of the past four years we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for their aid and guidance.
- XVIII To Miss Lynch, our Senior Dean, we leave a private secretary to help her with all her work and, also, we leave our deep gratitude for her kindness, untold patience, understanding, and assistance which she so graciously and generously gave to us throughout our senior year.

Class History

This Is Your Life — The Class of 1958

You were born September 9, 1954. The first few months of your infancy witnessed many unusual experiences. The style of dress was strikingly different; the boys were clad in peg-pants and blue suede shoes, and the girls were dressed in argyle knee socks with white bucks, plaid pleated skirts, and "Sheltie Mist" sweaters.

The new members of the G.A.A. had to be initiated into the club in order to become full-fledged members. The girls had to wear a safety-pin necklace, a nylon stocking and a sneaker, a sock and a shoe, a crazy hat, no make-up and a sign with their name on it.

The Dramatic Club put on two plays, which were presented at their annual performance, Curtain Time. The plays later won a place in the State Finals of the Drama Festival held at John Hancock Hall.

The highlight of the fall was the Rindge-Latin football game, which, of course, we won on Thanksgiving Day. The Freshman basketball team followed this victory by reaching the semi-finals in the Tech Turney.

Chosen to serve on the Student Council for the last half of the year in 1955 were Themis (Cookie) Happas and Teresa Solano. Around this same time, the framework for the Junior Kiwanis Club and the Key Club was laid. Thus, your Freshman year ended.

Your second birthday was postponed due to the tragic polio epidemic.

Shortly afterwards the newly-formed Key Club came into full swing. The Future Nurses' Club, THE CAPS, was originated when Carole Anne Pentz entered a student contest, Know New England, sponsored by the Boston Traveler and won. She was awarded $1,000 plus $500 for her school. In honor of Carol it was suggested that her first three initials be used as part of the name for a new club to be formed for those pupils who intended to enter the nursing profession.

A new school program was initiated and the school day was divided into six periods instead of five.

For the second year in a row, the football and basketball teams performed the double feat of defeating Rindge and of playing in the Tech Turney.

The Sophomore Class elected Anne Manning, Julie Vitale and Themis Happas to the Student Council.

Although you were not acquainted with Mr. Bramhall personally, his death during your sophomore year might have had a bearing on your future years. Mr. Bridey, who was the Junior Master at the time, took over the position as Senior Master.

The Dramatic Club's production of "The Last War" won first prize in the New England Drama Festival.

The social activities included a Roller Skating Party, sponsored by the G.A.A. at the Wallex in Waltham and a Square Dance Exhibition for the parents of your class.

The arrival of your third anniversary was accompanied by great expectations in regard to the numerous social events and goals which loomed in the near future.

The Dramatic Club, under the masterful direction of Miss Lillian Hartigan and Mr. Robert Guest, produced "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" and for the second successive year won first prize in the New England Drama Festival.

Bruno Macaro, Paul Manganelli, James Gnerre and Ann Shilosky were elected to represent the Junior Class as members of the Student Council.

Thanksgiving morning was again a victorious day for our football team.

Henry Ouellette and Robert Solakoff were elected co-captains of the football team for 1958.

The election of the class officers was held when you returned from the Christmas holidays. The following officers were elected: Pat Frisoli, President; Vice President, Ann Manning; Secretary, Marilyn Bradshaw; Treasurer, Mary Ann Roberts.

The Junior Prom Committee was also elected on the same ballot. Chairman of this committee was Janet Reddy and the other members were Joyce Reddy, Roberta Jackson, Themis Happas and Frances Fraser.

The ring committee's selection gave you the opportunity to purchase your class ring as an underclassman.

In contrast with the unusual attire displayed during the G.A.A. initiation, was the delicate femininity worn at the K.B. Informal. Estelle Kyett, President of the K.B., crowned Sonny Renna and Sheila Bright, King and Queen.

Under the direction of Mr. Edmund Murphy, the first Junior Class Day was held in the Cleveland Auditorium. The junior girls impersonated boys' sports by dressing up in the various boys' uniforms; in return, the boys set the fashion of the day by wearing the selective styles of the opposite sex. Pat Frisoli, who was MC, did a fine job of introducing your classmates in various vocal and instrumental arrangements.

Sadness again darkened your door with the passing of Mr. Joseph Freni, Miss Mabel Harrington, Miss Mary O'Shea, and Miss Gertrude Ford.

Paul Solberg and James Keating were chosen co-captains of the basketball team for 1958.

James Owens achieved the honor of State champion in the half-mile and second place in the 1000-yard event.

In April, the Junior Prom climaxed the social calendar of the Junior Class. The Hotel Commander was gaily decorated with your theme "Orchids to You." The gowns displayed many colors of the rainbow. Anne Manning, with her unusual plaid gown, and her escort, Billy Zebal, were crowned King and Queen.

Miss Butler, Head of the English Department, retired and Mr. Frank Frisoli, Sophomore Master, is acting Head until a new one is appointed.

The celebration of your fourth anniversary was stunned by the untimely death of your beloved Senior Master, Mr. Charles Bridey.

The senior election resulted in selection as class officers: President, Bruno Macaro; Vice-President, Pat Frisoli; Secretary, Carole Scanlon and Treasurer, Nicholas Ianelli.

Frances Fraser was elected chairman of the Reception Committee, while the other members selected were Beverly Earl, Jackie Napolitano, Nancy and Jane Ogden.

The football team battle ended in a tie 0-0 in the annual Thanksgiving Day Classic with Rindge Tech.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce presented Robert Skalsky a trophy for being the best high school football player in Cambridge.

The basketball team enjoyed a wonderful season winning the Suburban League Championship with a record of 14-0 and qualified for the Tech Tourney.

This year's hockey team of "Champs" contributed much excitement in the school. They had a great season and finished as Massachusetts State Champions and this entitled them to compete in the N. E. Championship.

James Owens achieved third place in the B.A.A., second in the State and eighth in the National running the 1000 yard.

The Yearbook Dance held in the Girls' Cafeteria during the Christmas Holidays was a financial success and helped to keep the book at a reasonable price.

The Student Council whose officers are: President, Paul Manganelli; Vice President, Bruno Macaro; Secretary, Joyce Reddy and Treasurer, Linda Hill joined with the Key Club for a Dansant which was financially very successful. Both clubs were benefited from the proceeds.

Then came the aptitude test in January. It was no sooner behind us than we began our preparation for the March Achievement Tests.

Jean Horn received the Good Citizen Award given annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution; Joe Gould did an excellent job on the examination given by Westinghouse in its Search for Talent, and Betty Fitzmaurice received an award from Betty Crocker as a result of the "Homemaker of Tomorrow" contest.

After the KB Informal you looked forward with great anticipation to the Senior Reception. Finally it arrived; a night to remember!

Then came the distribution of the yearbooks — what fun, excitement and hectic hours spent in autograph seeking! Class Day arrived and we filed to the Cleveland Auditorium for a day of entertainment and gaiety.

The graduation exercises culminated four years of diligent preparation for your future careers.

As the book slowly closes, the memories of the past four years will remain forever in your minds.

GOVERNMENT

We have just received a bulletin informing us that George Leccese, head of the Committee on Unfriendly Activities, revealed today that the rivalry which existed between the Fair Play Party, headed by Richard Anastasi, and the More Just Party, headed by John Simmons, threatened to flare into open warfare recently when they both nominated Peter Mullan as their candidate for President of their respective parties. A mediation committee, composed of Joseph Bettencourt, Paul Langley, John Hunter, Angelo Renna and Paul Joyce, settled the matter by suggesting a merger of the two parties. However, it seems that they are still at odds; they wanted to call the new party the More Fair Party, but were told that this was grammatically incorrect.

From the Spanish consulate in Madrid comes the distressing news that Ambassador Jean Frye was forced to send to Pluto for secretaries because Brenda Hayes, Elizabeth Preston, Imelda Doyle, Mary Duggan, Patricia Doody, Catherine Menunoo, Marie Trogolo, Olive Smith, and Marilyn Mullen were attracted to jobs on Venus. From Italy we hear that Ambassador Marie DeBueriis and her assistant, Jane Curatolo, are having the same difficulty with their secretaries, Jane Correia, Catherine Jasinski, Lorraine Blanchard, Janet Morris, Elinor Clapp, Winifred Heyward, Barbara Thurston, Patricia Olsen, and Barbara Ward. That VENUS, up to her old tricks!

At a "Big Twenty-Seven" conference on the Moon, United States' representatives Lawrence Donohue, Thomas Sullivan, and Richard MacLeod secured a written promise from the Martians to the effect that they would require licenses of their citizens in the future before permitting them to drive their own rockets. It seems that Charles Morrison, Chief of the Interplanetary Traffic Force, and Richard Gibbons, Head of the Atmosphere Force, were having trouble with some people who were recklessly driving their new, low-slung missiles through the atmosphere.

It has been announced that Henry Ouellette was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court today. This, of course, will give his chief secretary, Deanne Yavanian, the opportunity to hire Sheila Drohan, Virginia Hazlett, Rosalie Seward, Mary Kebarian, Catherine Daszuto, Sheila Sullivan, Beverly Earle, Carole Sears, Ann Czarnowski, Joan Cooper and Patricia Johnson to staff the new office. James Pyne, Secretary of State, has declared that his next trip will be to Saturn to consult with Lawrence Sheehan, Paul Sullivan, and Donald Fantini, our ambassadors to that planet, to find out whether or not its government will permit us to borrow some of the light of its moons. While he is there, he will try to persuade Carol Carbone, Pauline Gaffey, and Patricia Ramos to return to Earth to become campaign managers for Paul Manganelli, who is a candidate for president of the International Ex-Student Council. We have also heard that Elizabeth Young has been elected President of the United Planets. This is not at all surprising, since many of the Earth members were former pen-pals of hers. Claire Gallant, our representative, told us that the vote was almost unanimous, and the following secretaries corroborated her statement: Marie Hutchinson, Constance Ferola, Rose Toomajanian, Beverly Clements, Barbara Gouliaski, Yvonne Gobiel, Joyce Hubachek, Lillian Brookings, and Donna Lockwood. They all did a very fine job of tallying the one hundred thousand odd votes that were sent in from all over the universe.

BUSINESS

The worst came for Roy Miele and Robert McCune, owners of the large industrial firm "Fixit Sputnik" when their secretaries, headed by Shirley Liberacki, formed picket lines outside the front office, and greatly hampered the entrance of Nicholas Iannelli and Charles Stephens, owners of another large firm "Bow Wow Muttnik" when they tried to enter. Among those advocating higher wages were Kay Fennell, Janice Gough, Marie Accardi, Lorraine Medeiros, Sybil Stone, Pauline O'Donnell, Rose Marie Testa, Lucille Loprete, Christine Dabrowski, and Ann Phelan. Thomas Parnell, president of a pineapple company, was informed today by his secretary, Mary Regan, that Charles Fillios, owner of a Continental Grocery Store, had complained of an unusually small shipment of fruit. Tom immediately contacted Frank Holmes, his partner in Hawaii, who said that he had the astronomers who first saw C.H.L.S. through a telescope from Pluto.

SPORTS

James Owens has just set a new world's record in the cross-atmosphere race to the moon; his time was fourteen days, ten hours, forty minutes, and six seconds. This event was reported by Ronald Cinelli and David Harrington who were returning from a basketball game on Mars with the Martian Space Travelers. They said that his time would have been less if he hadn't stopped at a diner on the way — he just loves Air Pudding with Wind Sauce. James Gnerre is reported to be coaching the team of the junior-spacemen. William Comins and Kenneth Penno, track stars, found a baseball hit from Venus by Joseph Iandoli when they were touring Australia. Robert Iannaco was sent to the 1970 Olympics for the weightlifting championship matches. Marilyn Bradshaw and Joanne Clark, returning from the Olympic hurdles championships in England, reported that the ocean liner on which they were traveling was forced to stop suddenly so that Sara Dry could complete her conquest of the Atlantic Ocean — she was walking. Edward McDonald and Richard Perkins have retired from rocket racing since Herman Banks has outdone them in his new convertible rocket. William Conway has been very successful on the golf links; he collected a large "rocket of gold" when he defeated John Harrington with just one stroke. Jeanne Cyr struck out James Landry in a game between the Girl All-Stars and the C.H.L.S. nine. She said it was due to the great signal calling of her catcher, Janice Thibodeau. James Higgins and John Hickey were seen searching for lost pucks around the nook so that they would be well-supplied for their game with the Martian champions.

ART, MUSIC AND LITERATURE

Tonight, tickets to the Metroplanetarium Opera were sold out for a rare performance by the most outstanding tenor in the world today, Manual Joaquim. He will be accompanied by the brilliant violinist, Jean Horn, who has just returned from an extensive tour of the planets. The gown she will wear is "out of this world" azure blue, the color of the sky, with twinkling stars jewelling the skirt; the stars were given to her by Leo's youngest daughter, the intellectual, when she stopped there for a little Moonlight Sonata with the girls from the K.B.

There was a teen-age riot at one of Boston's noted jazz spots. After an evening of scintillating music by William Harding, jazz pianist, and by the Bob Solakoff Trio consisting of Bob, Red Conlon, and Bobby Skalski, the crowd poured out of the club, and began to dance in the street, especially in front of Anita Greene's theatrical establishment; yes, the show was that good! However, Anita's windows were slightly damaged but she was a good sport and refused to accept payment. The riot was soon quelled by Dan Dignan, the singing policeman whose favorite song is the new hit, "Zooming from Star to Star."

The best-selling book in the country, as reported by a leading book publishing firm, headed by Maureen Tierney is "So How's the Family" by Teresa Solano. Running a close second is "Running a Close Second" by Nancy Bello.

Judith Foster and Virginia Cushing will exhibit their latest master-pieces at the home of Betty Ann Reardon, noted art enthusiast. This long-awaited event will be held early next month. For tickets, go to the Joseph Gould Space Station, where Joe will not only sell you tickets, but will read your palm and explain Einstein's Theory. He may take you, also, on a free tour of his space observatory. If, however, you are unable to obtain tickets, contact James O'Neil or your truly, and we'll both wish you the best of luck.

EDUCATION

There has been a conjunction between two of the heavenly bodies, Mars and Jupiter. Here's the story! It seems that the Americans on both these planets were still comparing their educational system with that of the Russians. The head of the Sputnik Educational System, Peter Mpontsikaris, was present with his chief advisors, Helen Tank, Carol Whelan, Lorna Larson and Hans Tischner. Acting as spokesman for the group, Charles Sullivan advocated that more Latin be taught in the schools. During his speech, he was interrupted repeatedly by John McIsaac, who zoomed by in Kitnups, the new rocket, designed by James Conway, Helen Toomey, and Marcia Cronshaw, eminent rocket experts. While all this was occurring, Ethel Gordon whipped up a Sputnik Special for Margaret Tierney, Dorothy Abreu, and Joan Merchant, chemistry teachers, who were waiting their turn to speak. Francis Burns, superintendent of the American Old-Way Education System on Jupiter, was supported in his ideas by Flora Athanas, his assistant director who, as usual, was wearing the latest slim-line RocketSuit. With them were Judith Higgins and William Edmonds, Heads of the History Departments; Jacqueline Napolitano and Mary Hegarty, Heads of the Mathematics Departments and Mary Ganong and Suzanne Flamand, Heads of the Science Departments. Also, seen there were Elizabeth Fitzmaurice, the world-renowned gymnastic instructor, and Carol Doliber, Alan Puzyn, Anne Manning and Francis Galvin who are noted English teachers. Joan Zerega, Mary Ann Roberts and Shirley Luchinskis, secretaries of the A.O.-W.E.S., and Marie Monaco, discovered Barbara Savickas, Marjorie Miles, Marion Raymond, and Louise Hatch sampling the shipments. Diane McCarthy, an up-and-coming business woman, is operating a fruit store in cooperation with Rosemary Dillon and Mildred Dalrymple. Dolores Braga has become a highly successful car dealer despite the stiff competition she has been receiving from Alan Joy. Among her many customers are highly-paid secretaries in the personages of Anne Perkins, Stephanie Ward, Jacqueline Patterson, Joan Gilmartin, Marcia Smith, and Barbara Oxley. Dolores attributes her success to her car manufacturing boss, Francis Cappucci, on Mars. Faye Paeff, a successful buyer for a well-known clothing establishment, has bought out a clothing firm headed by Linda Nickerson and Audrey Smith, because they tried to revive the "sack" styles of 1958. Paul Cabral, general manager of a cosmetic factory, has complained that his stenographers, Frances Bibeault, Mary O'Brien, and Grace DiMeo continually go on coffee breaks to a coffee house run by Arthur Enos, who say that his devastating charm and sun-tan complexion is due to the wonderful coffee grown in South America by David Halevy. Alice Paris, Judith Willis, Barbara Allen, and Ellen Lyons were heard trying to persuade their boss, Robert McGinness, to have the water cooler repaired. Charles MacNeil, owner of a typewriter factory, "Fast as the Wind" on Mars sent a new shipment to George Lambert, the head of a large bank; his secretaries, Joan Walsh, Bessie Sgouros, Sarah Bulger, Lois Kornatowski, Vasil Theodoulou, Jean Cooper and Ann Coughlin, received them gratefully. Linda Johnson and Ruth Hemenway, owners of adjacent beauty salons, are competing to invent new hairstyles to attract the stenographers and typists working in the business concerns across the street. Among them are Susan Campbell, Martha MacMillan, Agnes Sullivan, Jane Towski, Myrna Tuplin, Melva Chatmon, Caiole Kelley, Jessica Bianco and Helen Miranda. Rosemary Castro, Phyllis O'Brien, Ann Butler, Arlene McQueeney and Helen Tucker, all hard-working secretaries in a jewelry establishment owned by Joe DaRocha, are planning a trip to Spain on a jet-propelled raft built by that prominent shipbuilder, Frank Sheppard. Joseph Lavoie, the controller of a transit company which sends rocket ships to the Moon, becomes annoyed when well-paid secretaries like Eileen Paglierani, Eleanor Kelleher, Janet Hutchinson, and Marianne Wood, continue putting a nickel in the fare-box. Betty Luther and Janet Burke own and operate a large winter resort, "Get Away From It All" in Florida, which is visited annually by Carol Monteiro, Joan Devereaux and Carolann Sheppard; the girls constantly complain about John Callahan, owner of a toy factory, when he tests his mechanical speed boats in the swimming pool. Dorothy Ikels, Carol Wingood, Marilyn Mangan, Barbara Batten, Alice Shelvey, and Louise Finnemore, secretaries in a Jet Submarine Company, are very much pleased with the miniature submarine sandwiches served in the cafeteria since John Roberts, general manager, hired two chefs who were formerly employed in an exclusive restaurant on Sputnik X.

MEDICINE AND SCIENCE

Today, many of the universe's most outstanding scientists and doctors attended an open-house at the Universal Institute of Technology to celebrate the initiation of the Inter-Planetary Research Program. Philip Sheridan, chairman of the program, began the proceedings with a short talk; his co-chairman, Richard Slavinsky, also spoke briefly. Their talks consisted mainly of formulas, which they gave very effectively. Among the honored guests were Ralph Zieff, the doctor who discovered why people say "Ha! Ha!" when they laugh, and Joyce and Janet Reddy, the twins, who helped him to conduct his laughing experiments. Norma Belliveau, Sandra Lagrega, and Grace Drogo, the three young ladies who made the first non-stop flight from Earth to Pluto and back, were on hand to give the details of their journey, which was made especially dangerous by the Martian Zoomers, a group of rocket racers who were terrorizing the skies at that time. William Chafe, head of the new "Live-While-You-Can" Hospital was also present with his entire staff of nurses among whom were Sarah Harvey, Mary-Lou Kearney, Ann Marie Shilosky, Charlotte Corley, Claire Rothwell, Margaret Michaud, Anne Marie Gould, Irene Rawlings, and Marian Swartz. Eugene Levoshko and David Brannigan, the two wizards who rediscovered electricity after it had been out of existence for ten years, were there accompanied by Carol Ann Pentz and Frances Fraser, who had applied first-aid at the scene. Nancy and Jane Ogden, former Sputnik gazers, didn't pay too much attention to the program, because they were trying to find SLHC, the satellite EgdirbmaC* that appeared from nowhere. Charles Couture, the mathematical genius, also seemed to be very much pre-occupied; he claimed that he was in the midst of composing a new alphabet "no letters" to be used exclusively in algebra problems. Cynthia Lipkin and Linda Hill were seen comparing physics notes; they both have been working extensively on a new theory which promises to prove that the atoms in a molecule do behave regularly, and that the whole behaves erratically. Working with them were Richard Aitchison and Thomas Hughes. Vivian Thompson and Gerna Hewitt, who have worked unceasingly on space rockets for the past five years, made their first appearance to the group. They left in a very short time, however, so that they could return to the laboratory where their supervisor, George Marchant, was busily trying to perfect an instrument with which one could see out of the rocket instead of riding blind, as he does now. Rounding off the guests were Bradley Rye and Joseph Tahmoush, who are, of course, Ann Sarantakis, and Agnes Sullivan, secretaries of the S.E.S. recorded the arguments of their respective parties. Since the debate seemed to be at a standstill, Roberta Jackson, Helen Nichols, Arlene Anderson and Rochelle Desellier, biology teachers, left. They felt that they should return to Earth to see how everything was.

ENTERTAINMENT

The premiere of Nancy Graham's newest comedy, "Spaceman in a Cool Tin Rocket," was a complete success. It opened at the Costa Playhouse, named in honor of our foremost lady of the opera, Countess Beverly Costa. Pat Frisoli presented a marvelous portrayal of the handsome spaceman, while Catherine Keefe played opposite him as the elusive Earth-woman. Themis Happas and Norma Heath danced their way through the fast-tempoed Jupiter scene with amazing dexterity. Richard Cahill was cast as the tall, dark, sinister villain from Saturn, and Charles Kouyoumjian acted as his witty accomplice. The supporting cast consisted of Henry Zubajlo as Orion, Elizabeth Keough as Cassiopia, Palma and Elise Massarotti as the Gemini Twins, Rose Marie Perlatondo as Libra, Constance Bernaducci as Virgo, John Walsh as Taurus the Bull, and Marcia Myers, Carole Scanlon, Loretta LeBlanc, and Marilyn Smith as The Four Singing Satellites. The intricate make-up job was done by the famous make-up artist from the dark side of the Moon, Beth Fitzgerald. The sets were designed and painted by the same five ladies who did the sets for "Around Mars in Thirty Seconds." They are, of course, the illustrious Sarah Marino, Arlene McDonald, Christine Fuller, Elizabeth Di Pietro, and Barbara Tripp. The play was produced and directed by Robert Letteri and Alfred Vigilante.

"Well, folks, that's all the news for now. Don't forget to tune in the next time you graduate from C.H.L.S. Until then, this is Onurb Oracam, your friendly reporter, saying, "I'll be seizing you."

"You're off the air, Onurb."

"Thank's, George, warm up the Sputnik."

The Review

Under the watchful guidance of our faculty adviser, Miss Kelley, the members of the staff turned out four issues of the Review. Although working under a financial handicap and consequently a lack of space, the staff nevertheless felt that this was a good year.

The Co-editors, Teresa Solano and Betty Young, had willing and competent assistants in Judy Higgins and Ralph Zieff who wrote the Spotlight; Basil Anderson and Peter Mponstikaris in charge of sports; Fay Paeff, our fashion editor; Carol Doliber and Anita Greene, Freshman Notes; Anne Perkins and Mary Ann Roberts, interviews; Deanne Yavanian, music; Jean Horn, Alumni Notes; and last but not least our reporters, Judith Foster, Joan Wilkins and Janice Center.

Not on the writing staff but indispensable to the Review were our photographer, Eugene Levoshko; cartoonist, George Lambert; typists, Anita Greene, Sandra LaGrega, Mary Ann Roberts, Carole Scanlon and Carol Ann Sears and the business staff headed by Mr. Higgins, Flora Athanas, Marcia Cronshaw, Mary Ganong and June Harvey.

We wish to thank Mr. Sheehan, Miss Kelley, Mr. Higgins, the staff and all the members of the faculty and student body whose tireless efforts made possible the Review's seventy-fourth year of publication.

Student Council

The Student Council, a service group, was started in 1953 when a number of students petitioned the Headmaster to allow them to form a council for the purpose of representing the student body before the faculty and to further mutual interests of both.

The membership is composed of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores and two freshmen, and one representative from the Girls' Athletic Association, the Boys' Athletic Association, The Review, and a representative from each of the Social Clubs.

Among the many activities that the Student Council participated in the past year was the annual Student Council-Key Club Dansant which was a social as well as a financial success. We sold, also, over four hundred Cambridge Latin pennants. These pennants helped to foster school spirit.

The Student Council selected Thomas Dooley, Helen Christy, Jeanne Porter, Deanne Yavanian, and Paul Manganelli to travel to a high school in a neighboring town and see a town meeting. In exchange, pupils from that school came to Cambridge Latin for a day. A visit to City Hall and a City Council meeting was included.

The Student Council would like to thank Mr. John Toomey for his able assistance and untiring efforts in making this year so successful and enjoyable.

K. B.

The K.B. began the school year with the installation of new officers: Jean Horn, President; Sarah Marino, Secretary; and Marie Trogolo, Treasurer. As part of the initiation, a visit to a pre-Hallowe'en "horror house," the new Junior members carried dolls which were presented later to a children's home in time for Christmas. The month of January was spent in intense preparation for the K.B. Informal. The theme was "Cupid's Palace" and the dance was held on February 8th. The social and financial success of this annual dance proved that our efforts were not in vain. During the latter part of the year, we supplemented the scholarship fund already accumulated by the sale of greeting cards and candy. We were able, also, to enjoy a few theater parties during the spring vacation. Our last meeting in May was a party to welcome the new officers, and to turn over the duties of the club to the Junior class. For those of us who graduated this past year in the K.B. was filled with fun, achievement, and the joy of working together with our wonderful advisors, Miss Maher and Miss O'Neil.

Girls' Athletic Association

This has been a wonderful year for the G.A.A. in many ways. This year's officers were: Betty Fitzmaurice, President; Jean Cincotta, Vice-President; Sandra Moore, Secretary; Gail Temple, Patricia Bertini, Mary Turpin, Johanne Vitale, Executive Board.

Both the Freshman Initiation and the Record Hop were held in October, and thus, the year began at a lively pace. Of course, December would not be complete without our Christmas Party. This year we tried something new — a Bowling Party — and it was well received and very successful. Culminating the season's activities was the annual banquet. At that time many seniors received trophies, pins and charms for their outstanding participations in girls' sports.

All the officers and members join in thanking Miss Hyde and Miss George for their helpful assistance during the year.

Dramatic Club

We, who have been members of the Dramatic Club during the past four years, recall the parts we held in the several productions put on by the Dramatic Club. Even though we did not have the lead, we did learn about the various phases of theater.

Annually the Dramatic Club entertains us with "Curtain Time" which consists of three one-act plays, and this year the comedy "Charley's Aunt" was presented. The Seniors who took part in the 1957 "Curtain Time" were Paul Manganelli, James Ash and Thomas Parnell. The Dramatic Club introduced a new idea for a dance — Calypso Club — which was a huge success.

The major yearly event of the Dramatic Club has been the Massachusetts Drama Festival. The past three productions "The Taming of the Shrew," "The Last War" and "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" were selected for the State Finals and were shown at the John Hancock Hall. "The Last War" and "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" won first place in the State and New England Festivals.

We wish to thank Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest for their assistance, and, also, for making every production a success.

Glee Club

The C.H.L.S. Glee Club under the competent direction of its popular director, Mr. Dominic Amoruso, has grown in leaps and bounds during the past four years. At present the group consists of 250 students. This year the students were divided into a mixed glee, girls' choir, freshman glee, and a newly formed boys' group. We were blessed, also, with an unusual girls' trio. Recent examples of the fine work by our Glee Club were found in the Sophomore Music Assembly in November, the Veterans' Day, Washington's Birthday and Memorial Day programs.

Christmas caroling at school and at the home of Mrs. Thierry, founder of the Thierry Library at Cambridge Latin, are annual events in which all the students hope to participate.

The grand finale of the year was the Spring Concert. Preparation was planned far in advance and each group practiced its individual numbers until perfection was reached.

These events could not be accomplished without the endeavors of our wonderful director whom we shall remember always.

Projection Club

The Projection Club, which is under the supervision and direction of Mr. H. Clayton Haley, is a division of the city's audio-visual department.

The club operates six periods a day throughout the school year. The main function of the club is to assist the teachers and students in their respective subjects by the projection of educational films which are contributed by different organizations in the country. The young men in the club learn how to operate wire and tape recorders, the lights in the auditorium and the various types of projectors. They assist at all school assemblies and club activities.

All equipment needed for the meetings is entrusted to the Senior members. Minor repairs on all equipment are made also by the boys.

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors may join the club if they have passing grades and good conduct. This past year the club consisted of twelve members.

Junior Red Cross

In September, 1957, each Freshman was given a booklet about JRC activities plus a floor plan of the first floor. Many Freshmen and teachers were grateful for this service. Enrollment was successfully conducted throughout the school in mid-October. Following this, a Harvest Hop was presented and the profit went to the American Red Cross Children's Fund. Two afghans were knitted in our school colors and were sent to hospitals in March. Gift boxes were filled and sent to disaster areas in our own land.

Many, many thanks to the student body and faculty for their help and cooperation.

Future Nurses' Club

"CAPS"

The Future Nurses' Club was started at C.H.L.S. in 1955. The title contains the initials of its founder, Carol Anne Pentz. The club is under the efficient supervision of Miss Ward. This past year there were about eighty-five members in the club. The officers elected for 1957 - 1958 were: Carol Anne Pentz, President; Frances Fraser, Vice-President; Ann Marie Shilosky, Secretary; Joyce Reddy, Treasurer; and Freda Bonin, Chairman of the Program Committee.

The first major event this year was the Volunteer Nursing Project. Some of the girls volunteered their services one day a week at the Cambridge City Hospital. Future Nurses' Club pins were ordered at the beginning of this year. On January 25, 1958, we had a very successful ski train. A splash party at the Y.M.C.A. in April was enjoyed by all who attended. There were very interesting talks during the course of the year on Navy nursing, public health nursing, practical nursing, and physical therapy. Student nurses came from various hospitals and spoke.

We also visited and toured the Holy Ghost, Beth Israel, Massachusetts General, Mount Auburn, and the Peter Bent Brigham Hospitals. All in all, the Future Nurses' Club had a very successful year. The purpose of this club is to encourage more girls to enter the field of nursing and allow those interested in nursing to become acquainted with the profession.

Key Club

The Cambridge High and Latin Key Club is a branch of the Key Club International. It was organized in our school three years ago and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Cambridge.

The 1957-58 officers were Francis Burns, President; William Chafe, Vice-President; Ralph Zieff, Secretary; and Bradley Rye, Treasurer.

There were approximately thirty active members in the group this past year under the wise leadership of Mr. Herlihy and Mr. Wilson. Prospective members are selected by the Masters and invited to participate in the work of the organization. The Key Club is dedicated to unselfish service to all through Key Club activities.

The outstanding social event of the year was a January dance held at the Y.W.C.A. It was a financial success and the proceeds went toward a scholarship which is awarded annually to a deserving Senior boy.

Science Club

The Science Club began last year because of the enthusiasm shown by the students. This year's twenty-eight member Science Club got off to a good, early start under the able sponsorship of Mr. McKenna. At our second meeting the following officers were elected: Henry Horn, President; Lois Worrick, Secretary; and Francis Frazier, Treasurer. Subsequent meetings dealt with the planning and carrying out of excursions to various scientific concerns. Guest speakers from outside and from the club gave numerous lectures. All in all this year was a very prosperous one for the Science Club.

French Club

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

With the cooperation of its members, the French Club enjoyed a very successful year. Aided by Miss Parsons, the faculty advisor, the officers: Teresa Solano, President; Ralph Zieff, Vice-President; Roberta Jackson, Secretary; Neal Grossman, Treasurer, and Flora Athanas, Chairman of the Program Committee planned a number of activities which were held at various intervals throughout the four terms. Those who attended the Christmas Party were entertained by a very fine orchestra composed of club members who were active also in the School Band. Two free dinners at a French Restaurant, which many visited during the spring, were awarded to the winners of a quiz concerning French culture and history. Next on the agenda were a Mardi Gras, a speaker from the International Student Center, a trip to a movie, en français, and a program of slides taken of the French countryside. We trust that in the future, le Cercle Francais will continue to function as successfully as it has in the past.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club had a very successful season this year and most of the credit goes to our advisor, Miss Cox, who helped us considerably. At the end of our Junior year, we elected our officers: Jean Frye, President; Deanne Yavanian, Vice-President; Linda Hill, Secretary; Faye Paeff, Treasurer; Program Committee Chairman, Margaret Tierney.

At the first meeting of this year, we were fortunate to have one of the students, Sidney Feldes, tell us many interesting facts about the life, customs and dances of Argentina. Our first outside function was a bowling party which was enjoyed by us all, even the losers.

At our annual Christmas party, our president read us a story about Christmas in Spain. We ended the festivities with a "Carol Sing." One of our projects was to write to pen pals and we received much interesting information. In May we held our yearly banquet and enjoyed a typical Spanish menu which included chili con carne and arroz con pollo.

We leave with regret and extend hearty good wishes to the future members of the Spanish Club.

German Club

Although the German Club got off to a late start, the members wasted no time in voting for club officers. The results were as follows: Peter Pignone, President; Mara Veinbergs, Vice-President; Henry Horn, Secretary; and Helen Christy, Treasurer. The main events were our traditional Christmas party and the screening of the German movie, "Emil und die Detective." We thank Miss Wait, our sponsor, for all the fun and inspiration she has given to our club this past year.

Italian Club

Throughout the course of the year, the Italian Club had many activities. At the first meeting of the year the new members, as well as the old, were cordially welcomed by Miss Supple, the Club's advisor. Our first project was the baskets for the orphanage at Jamaica Plain. Many of the club members contributed chocolates, cookies, toys and comic books for these gayly decorated baskets. Also, we had a Christmas party with entertainment furnished by talented club members.

In March we held a talent show and students from the school offered their time and talents to help entertain the club. Later in the year the members went to the Amalfi Restaurant where they feasted on antipasto, ravioli, carne alla scaloppata, and for dessert, spumoni, which is one of the most popular Italian delicacies.

The members of the club would like to thank Miss Supple for her assistance and guidance in making this past year so pleasant and successful.

Cheerleaders

Practice was started this year with much enthusiasm. New sweaters were issued early in the year and later, due to the intense cold, we were given three-quarter length coats. Our thanks to Mr. Fraser for his thoughtfulness and kindness! At the traditional Thanksgiving game between Latin and Rindge the girls displayed good sportsmanship by routing for their arch rival, Rindge Tech.

When the basketball season began, the cheerleaders polished their routines and again led the cheering crowds. It was gratifying to have our boys win game after game and become one of the participating teams in the Tech Tourney.

The cheerleaders wish to thank their supervisors, Miss Hyde and Miss George for their patience, guidance and excellent instruction.

Football

Although Cambridge Latin didn't have a very successful year in Football, the team as a whole played very well. As usual, it was coached very ably by John "Tweet" Reardon and his assistants. The main reason why we had a bad year was the lack of experience. Most of the boys on this year's squad were sophomores and juniors. A few boys were ineligible most of the season and this hurt the team very much. Some of the outstanding players on this year's squad were:

Robert Serino, captain-elect of next year's team, Robert Solakoff, co-captain of this year's team, Robert Skalski, John Hickey, Tucker Dooley, Richard Murphy, Bruno Macaro, Herman Banks, Jim Whalen, Billy Raines, Billy Edmunds, Billy Brazil, Paul Solberg, Bradley Rye, and Dave Hinkle. I believe that next year Latin will have a successful year. The Football team wishes to thank everybody that had anything to do with its progress this year.

Basketball

This year's basketball team enjoyed a wonderful season winning the Suburban League Championship with a record of 14-0 and qualifying for the Tech Tourney. In a preliminary elimination game against Boston Latin, the Cantabs led all the way and won 78-53. The quarter-finals game against Brockton was a rough one with Latin leading all the way only to be overcome by a great comeback, 57-55. Some of the outstanding players on the squad were Dave Harrington, James Keating, co-captain, Bob Solakoff, James Gnerre, Larry Weisman, Herman Banks, Bill Harding, Charles Killilea, Ronald Peterson, Carl Nordblom, Walter Plausky, and Arthur Manousas. Our success was due mainly to the fine coaching of Mr. Sheehan and Mr. Mahoney. I believe that with such fine players returning, next year's team will be just as successful. The Basketball team wishes to express its thanks to everyone who helped make this year a great success.

Hockey

Led by co-captains John Hickey and Mikey Sugrue, the team had a great season, finishing second in the league with 6 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties. "Tucker" Dooley, "Dougie" Meehan, "Planks" Hickey, "Bagger" Higgins, "Mikey" Sugrue, "Walt" McGinnity, "Dave" Duffy, and "Bob" St. George were the sparklers of the team. Our record enabled us to be candidates for the state championship. In the first elimination game, we defeated unbeaten Woburn in a thriller 1-0. The second game we won 5-2 against highly favored Auburn. We beat Natick in the quarterfinals 2-1, Needham in the semi-finals 2-1, and Walpole in a thrilling comeback victory 2-1. This last victory made us Massachusetts State Champions and entitled us to play in the New England Championship. Dooley, Sugrue, Meehan, and Hickey were G. B. I. All Stars; Hickey, Dooley, and St. George were All-Tourney All Stars; and "Planks" was chosen most valuable player in the tournament. We must not forget one of the most important elements in our team's victories — the coaching of Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Downing, who inspired the Cantabs to their greatest season and the State Championship.

TRACK

The track team enjoyed a moderately successful year in competition in the Metropolitan League. Captain James Owens set an outstanding record by placing third in the B.A.A. Meet in the 1000-yard heat, second in the State Meet and eighth in the Nationals at Madison Square Garden, N. Y. Bob Solakoff and Charles Olken did well in the shot put. High jump was left to John McIsaac who really filled the bill. Bruni Macaro and Kenny Simmons ran the 50-yard dash, Bill Comins the 600, Richie Murphy and Richie Snyder the 300, Kenny Penno and John Darcey the mile, and Peter Mpontsikaris who proved to be an asset to the team.

The team would like to thank Coach Murphy for his guidance and assistance.

CROSS COUNTRY

This past year found the cross country team headed by Captain Bill Comins at its best. In two encounters against Somerville, the team won by two decisive victories. On the team were Captain Bill Comins, Ronny Cinelli, John Darcey, Ken Penno, Jim Owens, Ray Spartachino, and Pete Mpontsikaris. In the championship meet, out of six possible places our team came in third. Cambridge Latin was the only school to have two boys, Ronny Cinelli and Kenny Penno, in the top five runners. The team wishes the future cross country boys the success they deserve.

P. Sullivan, R. Spartachino, K. Penno, W. Comins (captain), R. Cinelli, J. Owens, J. Darcy.

H. Woods, C. Sullivan, W. Comins (co-captain), W. Conway (co-captain), A. Patterson, W. Quimby.

Golf

Last year Mr. Landrigan became our newly appointed coach. This past year our golf team had a moderately successful season. Lettermen this year were Senior Co-captains William Comins, William Conway, Woodrow Quimby, and Henry Woods. Newcomers to the team this year were Carl Edmonds, Edward Walsh, Charles Sullivan, Thomas Parnell and Thomas Levis. The boys showed much enthusiasm and great form against the opposing teams.

The team would like to thank Mr. Landrigan for his wonderful coaching and wish the future teams success.

WILLIAM CONWAY,

Tennis

There were few veterans remaining from last year's team. Returning were Captain David Halevy, Dave Campbell, Jerry Quinn, and Dave Moran. The team had a fairly successful year. Under the able direction of Mr. Cohen, the team showed good form against their opponents.

With the growing interest in Tennis, Cambridge Latin will surely have an outstanding team in a few years.

Baseball

This year surprisingly enough found the underrated C.H.L.S. Baseball Team to be one of the powerhouse teams in the Suburban League which stands high in the state. We had outstanding pitching by Jim Keating, Walter Plausky, Walter McGinnity and Dave Harrington. Everybody on the team had previous playing experience in the past two years and the majority were seniors with a few lowerclassmen. This past season we had all-around athletes who were lettermen in football, track, hockey and basketball. The graduating seniors who put in fine performances were: Henry Ouellette, Nick Iannelli, Dave Harrington, Bob Solakoff, Bob Iannaco, Herman Banks, Jeff Iandoli, Carl Nordblom, Tom Hughes, Ronny Peterson, Bruno Macaro and Captain Jim Gnerre.

Epilogue

As we close the cover of this yearbook, we shall remember always our classmates and our teachers. In days to come whenever we thumb through its pages, no matter in what part of the world we may be, what time of the day or season of the year, we shall have nostalgic memories of the four happy, carefree years we spent at C.H.L.S.
